

Analog Electronics Laboratory

Lab Area: 100.05 Sq.m

Analog Electronics Laboratory is well equipped with various analog trainers for experiments related to basic characteristics and applications of diodes, transistors and operational amplifiers. Various amplifier configurations and oscillators related experiments are carried out in the laboratory. There are various test and measuring instruments such as function generator, power supplies, digital multi meters, cathode ray oscilloscope and breadboard.